Grants Information Resource Center (GIRC)

Free Service for Nonprofits. The Mayor's Office of Partnerships and Grants Development (OPGD) provides nonprofit and government representatives with funding information at its Grants Information Resource Center (GIRC). This computer center provides access to funding databases, as well as the Internet. Staff is available to provide information on additional resources. The GIRC is located at One Judiciary Square, 441 4th Street, NW, Suite 1130 North. Call (202) 727-8900 to schedule an appointment.

Sustainable Funding For Your Mission. The Mayor's Office of Partnerships and Grants Development will host a free introductory session facilitated by Raising More Money. The session will provide an overview of a system for building sustainable funding for the mission of organizations from individual donors; how to leave a legacy of mission-centered individual giving; how to continuously identify and introduce ideal donors to organizations; and how to personally cultivate people to become lifelong donors. The session will be held on February 15, 2006, 2:00 p.m.-4:00 p.m., at One Judiciary Square, 441 4th Street, NW, Room 1107-N, Washington, DC 20001. To RSVP your attendance, you must register at:

<http://sforce.raisingmoremoney.com/intros/midatlantic.htm>, scroll down to this session, and select "Register". For further information, contact Camille Ball at Camille.ball@raisingmoremoney.com

Special Announcements

Mining for Gold – How to Read Foundation Tax Returns. The Mayor's Office of Partnerships and Grants Development will host an information session on how to read and understand foundation 990-PF forms. Kathy Jankowski, research director and publisher of GrantsDirect.com, will help you to understand how foundations operate by studying their gifts received, officers and directors, and the grants lists. It's not all about foundations giving to you; it's about you realizing how your organization intersects with their patterns of giving. The workshop will take place on February 13, 2006, from 10:00 a.m.-noon, at One Judiciary Square, 441 4th Street, NW, Suite 1117. To register, contact Dawn Mitchell at (202) 727-8900 or dawn.mitchell@dc.gov.

Previous Announcements

2006-2007 AmeriCorps State Funding Grant Reviewers. Serve DC is seeking individuals to review grant proposals for AmeriCorps State funds. This is an excellent opportunity to network with colleagues in the national service world, learn more about the grant-making process, develop your own grant-writing skills, learn about exciting things happening in national service programs, and contribute your knowledge and experience to our efforts to select high-quality programs for funding. For further information and to apply, forward your resume to: John Savage, AmeriCorps Program Officer, Serve DC, 441 4th Street, Suite 1040S, Washington, DC 20001 or servecd1@dc.gov or call (202) 727-7925.

2006 John W. Gardner Leadership Award and the Leadership IS Award. Independent Sector honors outstanding organizations for their leadership in investing in people of the independent sector as they work to build community. The award supports this important principle by acknowledging an organization that incorporates the development of future leaders in its policies and daily operations, and aims to recognize organizations that place an emphasis on internal leadership and staff, board, and volunteer development. To be eligible, an organization must be a nonprofit but need not be an Independent Sector member. The deadline for nominations is March 17, 2006. For further information, go to: <http://www.independentsector.org/>.

Creating a Grantseeking Calendar. Grant Station is offering a free exercise to assist organizations to create a calendar that builds a grantseeking schedule around a set of projects or programs previously identified by the organization. To create a grantseeking calendar for this calendar year, go through the following exercises and fill out the worksheets at the website listed below. This will help organizations to focus on grantseeking for 2006. This week Grant Station will cover information that organizations should gather and in what format. For further instructions, go to: http://www.grantstation.com/Public/News\_Views\_px/trackstosuccess.html.

Fannie Mae Foundation Fellowship Program in Affordable Housing. The John F. Kennedy School of Government at Harvard University and the Fannie Mae Foundation are accepting applications to support the professional development of senior state and local government officials and nonprofit leaders committed to affordable housing in the U.S. The fellowship program will enhance the management and decision-making skills of accomplished leaders experienced in managing housing and community development programs. The deadline for applications is March 31, 2006. For further information, go to: http://www.fanniemaefoundation.org/grants/kennedy\_school.shtml.

Giant Step Award to Recognize Achievements of School and Public Libraries. Thomson Gale and School Library Journal recognize outstanding school and public libraries that have made significant

Taking Control of Your Annual Fund

Whitepaper. Blackbaud has published a free report to assist organizations with building donor loyalty. An annual fund can be the cornerstone of a successful fundraising program. If developed correctly, annual fund solicitations can improve an organization's annual fundraising results and help to identify those who are most likely to become your best planned gift and major gift prospects. To download a free copy of this report, go to:

<http://fconline.fdncenter.org/pnd/5002103/blackbaud/bb>.

Technology Program. NP Online Action is accepting applications to improve websites, online donations, software technology, and build networks within U.S.-based nonprofit organizations. For further information, go to:

<http://www.charityadvantage.com/>.

Youth-Led Social Change Projects. YouthActionNet will present awards to youth leaders and emerging projects that promote social change and connect youth with local communities. To be eligible, youth-led projects should have clearly defined goals and the potential for growth or further replication. Final selections will be made following a peer-review process in which previous award winners select the next round of awardees. The deadline for applications is April 15, 2006. Award recipients will receive $500 and will be eligible to participate in an international capacity-building workshop. For further information, go to: http://www.youthactionnet.org/yan\_awards.
